

BLM 2.1 DIAMOND ORGANIZER: CONSEQUENCES OF WORLD WAR I

When World War I ended, there were many consequences for Canadians. Use the diamond ranking organizer below to arrange the consequences from most important to least important. The consequences are listed in a chart on the next page. Then write a paragraph explaining your ranking.

Most Important

Least Important

BLM 2.1 DIAMOND ORGANIZER: CONSEQUENCES OF WORLD WAR I (continued)

Consequences

Creation of Remembrance Day.	Improved war technology.	Munitions factories close to retool for peacetime production.
Not enough medical care for citizens.	Canada is seen as independent from Britain.	Creation of the League of Nations.
Canada gains a seat at the League of Nations.	Thousands of injured soldiers come home.	Germany loses power and influence in Europe.

Reasons for Ranking: